SHERMAN IS BETTER

His Brave Battle Ends in Victory.

STORY OF A DAY IN THE SICK ROOM.

The Aged Warrior Gives a Remarkable Exhibition of Vitality—Extreme Union is Administered—
The Latest News.

New York, Feb. 13.—[Special.]—At noon General Sherman was reported much improved. There is now a fair chance for his recovery. It was not until late this forenoon, however, that this hope found encouragement.
At 2:40 o'clock this morning the physicians said that if he could maintain for twenty-four hours more the ground he then held, the situation would be hopeful. No tidings that he was losing ground came after this, although he was reported to be very weak. The members of General Sherman's family, with the exception of his daughter, Miss Rachel Sherman, are resting within easy call of the sick-room. Dr. Alexander, Private Secretary Barrett and Miss Rachel are at the General's bedside. Miss Rachel absolutely refuses to leave the room, despite Dr. Alexander's admonition that she will break down if she does not get some rest.
In the first turn of the morning the lights flashed suddenly from the windows of the second story of the house of General Sherman and a messenger ran down the front steps and hurried toward Tenth avenue. In a few minutes Rev. Father Matthew A. Taylor, pastor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at Tenth avenue and seventy-first street, went quickly into the house.
Half an hour later Senator John Sherman drove up in a carriage. After about two hours Father Taylor reappeared and went back to the parish house. A crisis had just been tide over, and the General was slowly returning to the state which the bulletin of the night before had announced. The lights disappeared and the household quieted down again. A dispatch was sent to President Harrison at 5 o'clock a. m. saying that the General was growing steadily worse and that the doctors had given up all hope.
At 8 o'clock Dr. Alexander, coming from the house, said: "General Sherman is still alive and there is no change for the better."

THE BLACK VAIL.

Miss Kate Drexel Will Hereafter Be Known as Sister Katherine—Her Final Vows Taken—Her Life and Fortune to Be Devoted to Advancement of Indians and Negroes.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—Miss Katherine M. Drexel, daughter of the late F. A.
Drexel, the Philadelphia banker and millionaire, at 7 a. m. Thursday took the final vows which make her for life a sister of the Roman Catholic church.
The solemn and impressive ceremony took place in the chapel of the convent of the Sisters of Mercy in this city, where Miss Drexel has served her novitiate for a year and a half. Less than one hundred persons, including her relatives, a few intimate friends, the Sisters of Mercy and a number of priests, were present on the occasion. Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, received the final vows and a sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by Cardinal Gibbons, who came especially from Baltimore to participate. After the sermon Miss Drexel was invested with the black veil and became Sister Catherine.
The event is a noteworthy one in the history of the Roman Catholic church from the fact that Sister Katherine proposes to devote her life and fortune, the latter amounting to over $700,000, to the founding of a new order, and its special field of work will be among the Indians and colored people. The new order, which will be known as the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, has received the approbation of Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, who has had the matter under consideration for a long time, and it is understood that it has also received the favorable consideration of one of the congregation of cardinals who are intrusted with authority and discretion in such matters. The mother house will be in Andalusia, a few miles outside of Philadelphia. Attached to it will be the novitiate, where the young sisters will be trained for their future duties in teaching and administering to negroes and Indians.

The President to Take a Southern Trip.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 13.—William Youngblood, member of the Republican National Committee for Alabama, is authority for the statement that immediately after the adjournment of Congress President Harrison, Postmaster-General Wanamaker and other members of the Cabinet will make a tour of the Southern States.

Guarding Boxes on the Street.
When the cold wind whistles through the streets at night it makes life vastly uncomfortable for the men who are paid to guard piles of boxes left on the pavement outside the big wholesale houses. If they do their duty conscientiously, these watchmen are bound to get a pretty fair notion of what a real winter night is. There is one of them, however, who manages to get some comfort out of his chilly trade.
The other night he was seen taking his ease in the midst of a lot of packing cases in a street near Broadway. An empty box, set with its open end toward the middle of the street, had been furnished within with a piece of old carpeting, which served the double purpose of keeping out the draughts and at the same time of making a rather easier seat.

In front of the open end of the box stood an old iron ash can, with holes enough in the bottom to secure plenty of draught for the fire that blazed within. With this extemporized furnace a few feet from the entrance to his sentry box, the watchman sat in state.
The wind could not get at him, and the fire kept him fairly warm. Moreover, his duties were not of a nature to bother him greatly. He was in the heart of the business district, and few persons were likely to venture through the street, while the wind was keen enough to make a raid by hoodlums hardly to be expected. A few blocks away another guard was found without the inventive genius of his fellow.
He was bundled up in overcoats, but he looked as cold as a country cousin's welcome to town.—New York Times.

IN CONGRESS.

Mr. Cleveland's Silver Letter Put on Record in the House—Proceedings in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—After business of little interest the House went into committee of the whole, Mr. Payson (Ill.) in the chair, on the legislative appropriation bill. In speaking to a verbal amendment Mr. Grosvenor (O.) sent to the clerk's desk with his hearty endorsement the account of the meeting at Cooper Union Wednesday night and the letter addressed by Grover Cleveland to E. Ellery Anderson in opposition to free coinage of silver.

In speaking to a verbal amendment Mr. Hooker (Miss.) referred to the printing of Mr. Cleveland's letter in the Record and said that, for one, and speaking only for himself, he was not disposed to permit that letter to become a part of the Congressional Record of the country without saying something in regard to it, so that he might express the sentiment of the people he in part represented. In regard to the publication he wished to say for himself, and he believed for his constituents, that they wanted the free coinage of both metals. Whatever might be the opinion of any one man, whether he had occupied an eminent position in the past or expected to occupy it in the future, he had no right to speak for the great laboring interests of the country, which stood back and behind the constitution and law. [Applause.]

Mr. Cannon—I would like to ask the gentleman whether he is in favor of Mr. Cleveland for next President.

Mr. Hooker—I will say that I do not think that a man on the continent of America will ever be a candidate of the Democratic party for President of the United States who is opposed to the free coinage of silver. [Applause.] In speaking to the Pension Office paragraph Mr. Cooper (Ind.) made an attack upon the superintendent of the pension building, asserting that he had stored several hundred bushels of potatoes in the Pension Office and sold them to employees, thus turning a Government department into a huckstering establishment. Mr. Enloe (Tenn.) attacked the administration of the Pension Office and offered an amendment reducing to $3,000 the salary of the Commissioner. Mr. Perkins (Kan.) came to the support of Commissioner Raum, declaring that no more faithful, efficient, honest and capable man ever presided over the Pension Office than the present Commissioner. After further debate Mr. Enloe withdrew his amendment.

Without disposing of the bill the committee rose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The credentials of Senator Teller (Col.) for his second term began on Thursday morning March 4 next were presented in the Senate by Senator Wolcott (Col.) and placed on file.

As Senator Sherman was absent the copyright bill was laid aside informally and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the District of Columbia appropriation bill. It was amended and passed.
The following bills, among others, were taken from the calendar and passed: Senate bill for the relief of settlers upon certain lands in Iowa; Senate bill to increase by $450,000 the limit for the purchase of a site for a public building at San Francisco, Cal.; Senate bill to ratify and confirm certain agreements with the citizen band of Pottawatomie Indians and the ab-scentee Shawnee Indians and appropriating $225,000 to carry them into effect. A large number of pension bills also passed, including one following: House bill granting a pension of $100 a month to General N. P. Banks.

Plotted to Kill Her Husband.
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Vander-ver, who was arrested some days ago at Poplar Bluff, Mo., charged with murdering her husband, has made a confession that one Marion Long shot her husband, and that it was a plot between them. After Long killed Vanderver he left for Bloomfield, Mo. Officers will go after Long.

Bought by the Vanderbilts.
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—It is reported here that the Vanderbilts have recently purchased iron mines in the Marquette region of Michigan at an agreement of about $5,000,000. The mines include one that was made famous in the courts. Samuel J. Tilden and the late ex-Senator William H. Barnum were interested in it.

ADMIRAL PORTER DEAD

The End Came this Morning.

HIS BRILLIANT RECORD.

Many Telegrams of Condolence Received By the Family of the Dead Warrior—Had Been in Feeble Health for Some Time.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—[Special.]— Admiral David D. Porter breathed his last at his home in Washington this morning. His death caused great sorrow in the capital, and many telegrams of condolence from prominent men have been received.

Admiral Porter was one of the oldest naval officers in the United States, and his brilliant war record has made his name a household word throughout the land. The cause of his death is not yet definitely known. He had been in feeble health for some time, and at his advanced age, a comparatively slight illness was much to be feared.

WISCONSIN.

Measures Introduced in Both Branches of the Legislature.

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 13.—The first steps taken in the suits to recover interest money from ex-Treasurers McFar-rington and Harshaw were taken Thursday. At an early hour messengers left the capital with papers to serve on the last two State Treasurers.
A formal demand is made upon Mr. McFarfington for the return of interest on State funds amounting to $159,166, and upon Mr. Harshaw for $133,504. These amounts are alleged to be the interest on State funds loaned to banks during the terms of the two treasurers, of which no account was made to the State.

Murdered Across the Flood.

Justice Weir received a message requesting his presence at the hamlet of Blue Lick to marry a couple. He at once mounted and started, but was greatly impeded by the swollen streams that lay across his path. When he reached Blue Lick Creek he found that ordinarily placid stream a raging, roaring torrent, impassable.

While trying to devise some plan to get across there was a clatter of hoofs on the opposite side of the stream, and in a moment a horse was pulled up on the edge of the water. On its back was Harvey Taylor, who held on the pommel of his saddle Kate Newmy.
The couple wanted to get married, and that quickly. How to do it in view of the water barrier was a question.

Finally the justice from this side of the creek suggested that the license be wrapped in a handkerchief and tied to a rock and thrown over to him for examination. This was done. Then the justice mounted his horse, and using his hands for a trumpet, shouted the words that are usually employed in marriage ceremonies at the hand in hand couple across the stream. They shouted back the responses, and the justice declared the knot tied.

About 200 feet of water separated Justice Weir from the couple, and the roar of the torrent and the patter of the rain probably rendered the service and responses inaudible, but as all formalities were observed the marriage is certainly legal.—Louisville (Ky.) Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Fortunate Musician.

A crippled musician to be found in Scotland, traveling on the line of rails between Dundee and Broughty Ferry.
He performs on the concertina, and has been in the business for the last ten or fifteen years. He is known to every passenger, and has his regular customers, who never fail to subscribe to the entertainment. Traveling does not seem to diminish his energy, for, with the aid of his crutch, he gets from one carriage to another with as much agility as his more fortunate fellow passengers.—London Tit-Bits.

Uncle Sam's Powerful New Rifle.

The armed despot of the Old World who may be contemplating plundering the United States are respectfully informed that Uncle Sam has recently perfected a new Springfield rifle that shoots a bullet 2,200 feet per second, with force enough to penetrate at 500 yards sixteen pine boards of one inch thickness, each placed one inch apart.
Any foreign despot who thinks he is thicker than sixteen inches of pine boards will cheerfully be accorded a position as a target.—New York Telegram.

The Advantages of Conversation.

The most agreeable way of getting information is by conversation. If you talk with a well informed person, who can express clearly his ideas on any subject in which you are interested, you can ask questions, you can have explanations, you can go over the subject until you thoroughly understand it, and searching out in this way, in the mind of another, a thing which you earnestly desire to know, you are more likely to remember it and to profit by it. This is why a competent teacher is better than any text book.
Besides, talk inspires both the speaker and the listener—the one becomes more eager to know and the other more eager to communicate.—Charles Dudley Warner in St. Nicholas.

Jogging His Memory.

Dogs are wonderful for their intelligence, and owners of dogs are perhaps equally wonderful for their faith and loyalty. Every one of them has a new story. Here is the latest:
"The other day," says Mr. Gordon, "I forgot to give Bruno his dinner, and in my preoccupation paid no attention to him when he began to beg for it."
"He went away at last and was gone for some time. Then he came in from the garden bringing something in his mouth. And what do you think it was? A sprig of forget-me-not!"

Royal Wood's Chance on a Main Street Lot.

FIRST BRICK HOUSE GONE.

Destruction of the Pioneer Structure Calls Up Memories of Days When You Could Trade a Mass of Cat-fish for Building Lots.

The old red brick house, one of the first, if not the first, brick house built in Janesville, located on North Main street, directly in front of the old Wheeler Woolen Mills, is being torn down that its site may be used for other purposes. The wood work in the building, especially the joists, rafters and studding, is attracting considerable attention, being tattered poles, torn to shreds as the poles would permit. The building is upwards of forty years old, and these poles are all in good condition free from any signs of rot. The brick appear to be good, and Thorngood & Co., the owners of the building, are having the old mortar cleaned off the brick, intending to use them in rebuilding. Messrs. Thorngood & Co. are also preparing to make use of the old wooden factory. The old machinery and fixtures having been removed, the building is now offered for sale. In case it is not sold, the owners will probably move it to some eligible point, and turn it into a warehouse or factory building of some kind.

"That was the first brick house built in Janesville," said Royal Wood, referring to the building. "I built it in '41 or '42—I don't remember now just which year." The old Stoughton building at the corner of Court and Main streets, occupied by Fathers as a meat market, was built the same year, but I got my house completed first. I bought the ground or lot on which the house stands from Rock county, and paid twenty seven dollars for eight rods on Main street, the lot extending back to Rock river. The county wanted me to buy the lots now owned by Thorngood & Co., on which their big factory is located, being eight rods on Main street and extending back to the river, but it was low ground and I did not think it was worth the money the county asked for it. They only wanted fourteen dollars for the whole thing. Sometimes a man can see where he has made a mistake, but no one here at that time ever thought the ground worth anything so close to the river." Mr. Wood watched the brick layers putting up the wall on J. H. B. building at Milwaukee street bridge, and as he looked up the river he concluded, "River lots are sometimes worth more than those back from the shore line."

WANTS A BONDED DEBT.

Bill Pink, of Evansville, Expresses His Financial Views.

EVANSVILLE, Wis., Feb. 12.—To the Editor:—I have been thinking that our president asked for more time to choose our much-lamented Windom's successor on account of the many mushroom writers upon the subject that he might have a larger number to choose from knowing his propensity to go among the people to make important appointments and give us all little surprises.

In our present emergency let Windom's wisdom help us. How? With a bonded debt. That is what saved the Union, and it will save us now. Change our laws, if need be the Constitution, so that we can elect by a majority of us all our servants, from postmaster to president, and especially United States senators and postmasters. What next? Equalize the proceeds of the bonded debt. How? Through a postoffice bank, if you please to add the word bank. Let the people elect the postmaster and be his bondsmen, and then, when any citizen wants to borrow money upon a certified abstract of title to real estate, let him give the general government a three days' notice of the amount he needs and the time, never to exceed $1500, nor for more than one year, with a rate of interest one per cent, above the government rate of bonded debt, and one loan from one file to debitor from obtaining another one at another, no matter how much security he might be able to give. Let a portion of this income go into public buildings in any town where such office is located, say for any postoffice that is now a money order office. The farmer that now wants to procure a few hundred dollars to tide over the conversion of his products into something he can drive to market is compelled to spend from three days to three weeks to coax the money lender to sell him the use of the money for ninety days or more and pay in advance a round sum for the use of it. This plan will equalize his chances and stimulate the consumer to save enough to get a little ready so that he, too, can borrow money, and build a home or go and buy some of the government homesteads by spending his time to improve them. If a bonded debt could save a nation in time of war it can keep it from bankruptcy or going into the hands of one class and making renters and slaves of the other classes.

BILL PINK.

REV. VAN WAGNER'S NEW HOME.

Its Dedication as Spoken of by the Creston Commonwealth.

The "warming" of Rev. A. J. Van Wagner's new residence is the topic of a column article in the Creston Daily Commonwealth, of Creston, Iowa. The Commonwealth closes with these words: "Between our people and Rev. Van Wagner is formed a mutual bond of friendship stronger than even kindred ties. The warm grasp of his hand, the tender expression of sympathy has created a feeling that words are inadequate to express—to know them is to feel them. He is a chip off the old block and a credit to his venerable old father, whom we knew in boyhood, and who was one of the grandest men that ever stood behind an Illinois pulpit. Rev. Van Wagner's life in Creston is rich in glorious deeds. His great aim in life is to do good. None that know him can say that his life is a failure. His energy, perseverance and self-sacrifice for others never tires. He is an illustrious example of the higher type of philanthropy. A heart large enough to sympathize with all, a voice always ready to promote good, and a lender in every good work. He is deservedly popular, not only in his own church, but in the entire community."

Line Foreman Edward Smith, of the Chicago & Northwestern, went to Milton this morning to superintend the moving of a house that was directly under the company's wires.

'T WAS A MYSTERIOUS BLAZE.

Elmer Bullard's Home Near Evansville Entirely Destroyed.

EVANSVILLE, Wis., Feb. 14.—[Special.] Clarence Bullard, who lives two miles northeast of here, lost his dwelling and contents by fire last night. No one had been in the dwelling since morning, and the cause is unknown. The loss is $900, and the home is insured for $700 in the German Insurance Company of Freeport.

FATHERS IS SATISFIED.

He Says That Covenant Mutual Affairs Are All Right.

James A. Fathers returned last evening from Galesburg, Illinois, where he had been attending the annual meeting of the Covenant Mutual Benefit Association, representing the Janesville policy holders. A meeting of the policy holders will be held sometime next week, at which Mr. Fathers will make a written report. He expresses himself as very well pleased with the arrangement of the management of the company affairs, and believes the managers to be working for the best interests of the members. The project of receiving a license for the company in Wisconsin has been laid over until another year.

One of Sheriff Hogan's stone breakers, having fifty-five days' work before him, was seen seeking good time down South River street this afternoon, concluding that he could reach the Illinois state line he would not work on the Rock county stone pile any more this winter.

Commendable. All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company, as acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Rev. W. H. Chapman, pastor of M. E. church, Georgelown, D. C., writes: "Having had an opportunity to test the excellent qualities of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, I hesitate not to say, it is the best remedy I have ever used in my family. For cough and whooping cough it is a sure cure."

P. S. Fenton for City Clerk. At the request of many friends I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Clerk, at the ensuing election.

TAKE GOLD IF YOU GO

A Rock County Man Talks of The West.

HOMES NO LONGER CHEAP.

A Small Farm Answers Every Purpose However, as Crops are Big—Cabbage Hauled 12 Miles and Sold For One Cent a Pound

"I don't want to stop any Rock county boys from coming out here if they have made up their mind to do so," writes William Ayers, a former Rock county man now of Sandydale, Kings county, Washington. "People told me before I came out here that this was the place for a young man to get a home cheap. I don't think that they will find one in Kings county—at least not in one day's tramp. The time when a man could get a ranch in this county for nothing has passed. I will admit, however, that a man does not need a very big farm here, because the climate is delightful, and very large crops are raised. Land is much dearer than it was three years ago, and anybody who buys a ranch now will have to pay from twenty to one hundred dollars per acre for it. Most of the land is covered with timber, and it costs a good deal to clear the land. A man must work very hard and hire help besides."

"Along the river the land is fine. They have some fine farms and ranches but they have a big price on their land, and the place where you can get a home for a song is not to be found here. Of course I have not been here very long, since December 1890, and I may like it better after a while. The men who have a garden, a cow and a few chickens get along pretty well here and make a good living. Gardening, hop raising and dairying pay well because there is a demand for these products. Ranchers, though, have been drawing cabbage to Seattle—twelve miles—and selling for one cent a pound. Potatoes have cost ninety cents a bushel, but are cheaper now. What do you think of paying forty-five cents a dozen for eggs? That is what we did. They are quite cheap now though—thirty cents a dozen. Hay brings sixteen to twenty dollars a ton, and feed of all kinds is higher. It doesn't take a cow long to eat her head off that here."

"In regard to the weather. When I left Janesville last December there was some snow on the ground. When I reached Eastern Washington there was about the same amount there. When we arrived at Tacoma it was raining and we have had rainy weather about half the time since. We don't have what would be called a hard rain-storm, but have misty, damp weather, with now and then an April shower. We have had but one thunder storm since I've been here. I keep saying 'well, this is good tobacco weather.' But they don't raise such a crop in this country, they are all too good."

THE STATE LEAGUE FORMED.

Janesville Represented at the Marinette Conference—Guarantee Price Reduced.

Ed Broderick represented Janesville at the base ball conference in Marinette yesterday afternoon. Janesville, Oshkosh, Appleton, Racine, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Green Bay and Marinette were represented by fifteen delegates. As Sheboygan was not represented, it was dropped from the league and County substituted. Harry T. Smith, of Milwaukee, was chosen permanent secretary. The guarantee price was reduced from $40 to $35 a game. The question of Sunday games was left to the schedule committee. The Spalding ball was adopted for the league. May 5 was fixed as the opening day of the season and September 20 as the close. A. L. Smith, of Appleton, having declined the office, Adolph Van Klee, of Oshkosh, was chosen treasurer, to give $1500 bonds. The league is to be governed by the rules of the national league, four umpires to be chosen at a salary of $75 each a month and railroad fare. The schedule committee is to select uniforms subject to the wish of the clubs. The secretary was instructed to apply for the national agreement. The treasurer is to draw upon each club at the end of each month a pro rata share of expense, the $200 guarantee to be returned to each club at the end of the season. The next meeting will be held at Racine, at the call of the president. The meeting was harmonious and enthusiastic. A banquet was given last evening at the New Dan-lap by the officers and directors of the Marinette club to the visiting delegates and their friends and invited guests.

PLAYED HOB IN A SCHOOL.

Unknown Trespassers Destroy $100 Worth of Property Near Milton.

Alcove of malicious trespassers has lately developed in the school district east of Milton Junction. The Victorian school house was broken into and books, maps and charts to the value of nearly $100 destroyed. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

"PAULINE" FARED WELL.

Janesville Operatic Stars Given a Flattering Reception in Fort Atkinson.

Manager P. E. Frink, of the Dank's Opera Company, came down from Fort Atkinson this afternoon. He says that the company took the audience by storm, and that Miss Shawan and Will Cody were called back four times on their debut. The company was greeted by a crowded house.

BACK FROM THE FASHION BALL.

Revelers Return from the Milwaukee Party with Swollen Heads.

"Oh! My head!" exclaimed a traveling salesman at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul depot this morning, as he tried to scratch his ear by extending his arm at full length. "I went to the Fashion ball at Milwaukee last night."

He looked as though he had. His plug hat was much too small and he vainly tried to jam it down over his ears.

"Why don't you hang your hat on one of your eyes?" asked a small boy as he dodged the reveler's cane, "they are swollen out far enough."

J. H. JONES NOT TO BLAME.

A Letter of Explanation from Reid, Murdoch & Co's Agent.

The trouble over the Jones' grocery stock has been settled. The store is left in possession at A. N. Jones.

J. H. Jones received a pleasant letter last evening from W. F. Bode, agent of Reid, Murdoch & Co., which explains itself.

Mr. Bode says in his letter that the settlement made by Mr. Jones, is wholly satisfactory, and that much of the trouble was brought about by a misunderstanding on the part of those most interested in his welfare.

"SPIDER AND FLY" ON A SPECIAL.

The Train From Janesville to Rockford Made in 67 Minutes.

On board a special train going 45 miles an hour, the Spider and Fly company dashed into Rockford at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The train left Janesville over the Chicago & Northwestern road at 12:30 o'clock, in charge of Engineer A. Thompson, and Conductor P. McDonald. The company's play at Rockford tonight, and to arrive there in time to make arrangements for the performance was the question. The time made by the regular train did not suit them, and a special was arranged for. It consisted of a coach, baggage car and an engine, and the run—forty-five miles—was made in one hour and seven minutes.

INSURANCE FOR DRUG MEN.

It Will Be Furnished by a Janesville Mutual Company.

The Druggists' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of this city has applied to Insurance Commissioner Root for license to do business in this state. The officers of the company are as follows: President, O. W. Widdie, of Milwaukee; vice-president, T. H. Spence, of La Crosse; secretary and manager, E. H. Westminster, Janesville; treasurer, R. H. Washburne, Palmyra. The board of directors for one, two and three years are as follows: One year, J. C. Huber, E. B. Hammett, R. J. Washburne; two years, J. A. Dadd, W. G. Spence; J. M. Evans; three years, C. W. Widdie, T. H. Spence, A. H. Hollister. The purpose of the company is to provide a mutual protection for drug stores and other stocks, and the buildings in which the same are confined, from loss or damage from fire or lightning. The offices of the company are to be located in Janesville.

Donation to a Pastor.

Milton Junction Methodist gave a donation party to their pastor, Rev. M. O. Hickman, last evening in Patron's of Harbundry hall. The net receipts were $38.

Dr. McCaushey Much Better.

Dr. G. H. McCaushey has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to go out. He visited his office today, and will resume work to-morrow.

THEY LIKED MR. EVANS.

The Janesville Pastor's Lecture Well Received in Watertown.

Watertown Republican.—The lecture of Rev. M. Evans, of Janesville, in the M. E. church course last evening on the "Sunny Side of Life," was no misnomer, but decidedly in harmony with its title, the lecturer treating his subject with bright, pat and humorous citations and incidents, which kept his hearers in a most mirthful and joyous mood from the beginning to the close. We have not the space we would wish for an analysis of the lecture, but the point chiefly aimed at was that the sunshine should be let into our eyes under any and all circumstances and thus dispel morbidities and gloom, which are too apt to cross our path if watchfulness and the exercises of great care are not practiced in daily life. The lecturer made a decided hit, and there is a general desire that the reverend gentleman be heard here again.

IN AND ABOUT OLD ROCK.

Racine will have a home for old ladies that will cost $15,000.

A company to insure plate glass windows will be formed at Oshkosh.

Charts for republicans cities will be killed if the state papers does not get the printing of them.

Charles Bell, of Beloit, attempted suicide by drinking laudanum, the wind-up of a protracted spree. Physicians saved his life.

Under the new Oshkosh charter the comptroller, city attorney, chief of police and chief of the fire department are appointed by the mayor.

Bargains. In small farms near the city—10, 15 and 20 acres each—all choice land. Prices low and terms easy. Also a few bargains in choice first ward lots if taken soon. Bargains in improved property in all parts of the city, always on hand, and plenty of money to loan. Now is your time to buy before the spring boom. HE TASTED SEWERAGE.

A Second Ward Man's Eyes Opened by the Gazette.

HIS WELL IS WORTHLESS.

Drainage From a Neighbor's House Several Rods Away Penetrates to His Premises and a City Sewerage System is His Only Hope.

"I am convinced that my well is serving as a cess pool for my neighbor," said a second ward house owner this morning visiting the Gazette office. "For nearly a year my wife has been complaining of a bad taste in the water. I have noticed it myself on several occasions, but the well being a deep one, and in gravel, I thought perhaps it needed only cleaning out. This I have done several times, but the bad taste did not disappear. After reading the Gazette's last night it struck me that the origin of the bad taste was explained. About a year and a half ago, one of my neighbors, living several rods east of me, had water service put into his house, and built a cesspool to receive his sewerage. My well is considerably deeper than his cesspool, but I am satisfied that the cesspool empties into the well. We read the Gazette article last evening, and my wife and I concluded that we would use no more water from the well until that sewerage is disposed of in some other way."

"Now, what are we to do? Are our wells a nuisance and a menace to the public health; or are these cesspools a nuisance? Has my neighbor a right to destroy my well in such a manner; and can anyone tell me what power or authority the board of health has to prevent such nuisances?"

"There is no water main on my street. My neighbor who fronts on the other street has the main, but I think if the sewerage question was settled and sewers built all the cess pools could easily be prohibited, and parties could with reasonable safety be permitted to use their wells. I don't understand how any one can oppose the building of sewers who has a taste for good well water."

The gentleman was in earnest, and he was respectfully referred to Health Officer Dr. O. P. Robinson to solve the problem.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

It cost Janesville people six hundred dollars to see the production of the "Spider and Fly" at the Grand Opera House last night, and none who witnessed the performance regretted that they had contributed to the six-hundred dollar fund. They were all delighted and well they might be. Such an elaborate and pleasing performance has not been presented in Janesville for many a day. The audience laughed at the pantomime cheered the singing and listened with evident appreciation to the breezy dialogue. The company appear next week in St. Paul.

Some Richard Mansfield began to twinkle as a star five years ago, he has had no less than ten different managers, twelve different treasurers and twice as many advance agents. Once upon a time he was familiarly called "Dick," by his brother professionals, but "It's different now."

Margaret Mather in "Joan of Arc" is booked for the Myers' March 3.

Gilmore's Opera Company will present "The Sea King" before a Janesville audience at Myers' Opera House, May 1 and 2.

Myers' Opera House will be brightened with flowers and handsome toilettes this evening. "Robin Hood" will be remembered as the real opening of the dramatic season of 1891, in Janesville. There is likely to be little standing room to be had in the house when the curtain rises. From all parts of the east come word that the opera is one of the most funnful put on the stage in years. It is pronounced "a good, wholesome, home-made argument worthwile to meet and convincingly enlge that class who demand a foreign trade mark on all forms of art before it can either win their credit or commendation." The opera is the work in a higher field of romance, following the trail of dream of comic opera in its endeavor to escape the limitation that lies dangerously near the domain of burlesque. The present impression of this genuine comic opera is a matter for just pride, as it is of promise for the future native workers.

ASK AND YOU GET IT.

Use Gazette Advertisements and Secure Whatever You Want.

Have you tried the Gazette's small advertisements?

If you have not you are missing a good thing.

Do you want servants?

Do you want a coal stove?

Do you want a lawn mower for next summer?

Have you a house to rent and do you want to rent one?

In any case, no matter what you want it will pay you to use the small advertisements column.

THE TARIFF IN ROCK COUNTY.

How It Affects the Price of Tobacco and Bary.

Ed for Gazette.—I trust that a word as to the effect of the McKinley law among farmers in this part of the county may not be out of place. I only touch on two points. As this is one of the tobacco counties I will speak of that. It is conceded by almost every one that the McKinley tariff raised the price of tobacco about $2 on a hundred pounds. I have a farm in view, one of my neighbors, who is an expert in raising tobacco. He usually raises about 1,600 pounds on an acre. He has been in the habit of getting from 6 to 7 cents per pound for his tobacco, but this year he obtained 2 cents a pound more than his usual price. He has a four acre lot that he uses entirely for the cultivation of tobacco. This year he had a splendid crop, and by the present price he obtained about $39 an acre more than usual, and his four acres thus would make the sum sum of $12 which he can credit almost entirely to the new tariff. But the biggest joke was this: He voted again for the McKinley tariff because "it was robbing the farmers of the west."

Now as to bary. It is not doubted by any one that the tariff of 30 cents on Canadian bary raises the price of American bary at least 15 cents a bushel. So that every farmer who had the good fortune to raise 500 bushels was the better off by the sum sum of $75.

And yet I think that on account of democratic misrepresentation two-thirds of the farmers of this vicinity voted against the McKinley tariff. But I think some of the more intelligent of them will take a different view before another two years have passed. L. D. ALFRED, Lima, February 8.

PLANS FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Local Republican Committees to Meet Next Monday Evening.

The republican city committee held a meeting last evening for the purpose of considering matters relating to the coming municipal election. It was resolved to hold a meeting on Monday evening next at 7:30 o'clock, at the Myers house parlors, at which the members of the ward committees are requested to be present. Every member of the city and ward committees are urged to be prompt in attending this meeting. These committees are composed of the following members:—

City Committee.—H. F. Bliss, O. D. Rowe, Silas Hayner, O. H. Keiss, V. P. Richardson, S. Norris, Eugene Rich.

First Ward.—E. W. Vanderlyn, George H. Davey, E. C. Borkick.

Second Ward.—E. S. Taylor, C. D. Childs, W. T. Van Kirk.
